Government of Canada announces historic immigration levels next 3 years

In a recent news release IRCC Immigration Refugees and Citizenship Canada said they will increase immigration numbers over the next 3 years to historic levels. In 2018, Canada will welcome 310,000 new permanent residents, 330,000 in 2019 and 340,000 in 2020. 60% of these immigrants will be from the economic category. In addition, Canada will continue to fulfill their commitment to offer protection to those in need. IRCC states the increased numbers will actually help reduce backlogs and processing times for families sponsoring children, parents, caregivers, etc.
