Orange Shirt Day:

Every Child Matters

Aboriginal Services would also like to take this opportunity to mention Orange Shirt Day is September 30th, 2020. Please wear an orange shirt to acknowledge the harm residential schools have caused, the healing that is still occurring with the survivors, and to show commitment to continued reconciliation.

Visit <https://www.angeshirtday.org> to learn more.

As we were not able to meet in person this year, please enjoy the

12th Annual Youth Exhibition Powwow video

What is a Powwow?

Powwow time is the Native Canadian people's way of meeting together, to join in dancing, singing, visiting, renewing old friendships and make new ones.

Learn more on Okanagan College website here.

Additionally, on the website you can now find some information about Powwow etiquette and terms, and a 'no-fail' bannock recipe (a traditional powwow staple!). Please enjoy the videos, and if you have any questions email jmacdonald@okanagan.bc.ca.
